

Alma Lasers presents FemiLift clinical studies at the FIGO 2015 conference

FemiLift offers a quick, safe and highly effective, minimally-invasive solution that addresses a wide range of feminine health concerns. It is a comprehensive treatment solution that can be performed in an outpatient setting with no need for anesthesia, no pain and achieves immediate improvement with lasting results. There is no patient downtime and women can regain their daily routine immediately post procedure.

PR Web, October 4th-7th, 2015